Nestled between the Mexico Pacific's thrashing waters, and the stunning presence of the world's aquarium—i.e., the Sea of Cortés—lies a marine sanctuary where the surf's tranquility reigns in tandem with its strong, splendid sun. Banderas Bay, shared between the states of Nayarit and Jalisco, is an wide-ranging zone, considered the biggest of its type in the Mexican Pacific and one of the deepest on the entire planet. It's a universe enveloped in soft breezes that comb through the palm trees, in whose tropical climate every gentle gust is a caress. This same sanctuary is home to the prestigious, exotic Riviera Nayarit, one of northern Mexico's most sought after and emblematic regions for visitors. The Riviera lies just minutes from the Puerto Vallarta International Airport and it fronts 300 kilometers of virgin shores. This, the state's toniest spot, is in turn a region of 23 micro-destinations where golden sand abounds, alongside palm-treed beaches and coastal villages where there is no notion of time and steep mountains protect every moment's intimacy.

Despite its syncretism and peace, the Riviera Nayarit also offers thousands of visitors an opportunity to do something entirely different. Fiesta, fun and the beach vibe are all glorious in Puerto Vallarta. Just within Jalisco's northern border—and as the Jalisco destination that attracts the most foreigners—you'll discover incessant, captivating rhythms, a beautiful old downtown and a waterfront malecón (think paved boardwalk) loaded with local artists' work where the sea is seemingly in the background of every expression. Additionally, Puerto Vallarta is no slouch when it comes to marvelous natural treasures like waterfalls, mountains and jungles; or indeed its scrumptious cuisine and innumerable traditions that conserve the essence of a community forever laughing at life.

The final point in this seaside trinity is a spot many souls might wish to inhabit eternally, Punta Mita. It's an unreal paradise where a volcanic-stone landscape spotted with virgin beaches welcomes everybody who hankers for peace and getting away from it all. The area's tighter configuration is compensated by its wide-ranging variety of marine activities, in addition to a large portfolio of exclusive hotels where luxury and privacy make for the finest, most enjoyable vibe.

The destination is a one-of-kind opportunity to live Mexico large using all five senses. The best part is that NUBA Incoming has put together experiences for you that submerge you within the most pleasant memories you've ever had on vacation. There's nothing else like Puerto Vallarta and the Riviera Nayarit, since every idea and person has a place in the region, in an atmosphere where anything is possible, especially when you're talking rest and enjoyment. It doesn't matter if you're an adventurer or a sybarite who's looking to get lost in luxe and pleasures, we're sure you'll happen on exactly what's right for you. Not for nothing has the destination become the secret hideaway for some of the most famous people on the planet.

CATAMARAN AND SNORKEL

Board an awesome, surprisingly luxurious catamaran to explore Puerto Vallarta's extensive southern coastline, i.e., the very heart of Banderas Bay. As you sail, you'll relish all but infinite, unheard of land- and water-vistas that lead to a single destination, Majahuítas. It's a tiny coastal secret, famed for incredible gold-sand beaches and all manner of marine life in nearby waters, these last the perfect motivation for some snorkeling and an up-close look at the realm that lies beneath the sea. Along the way there will be delightful tastes and exclusive wines, beer and top-shelf cocktails, all impeccable, thanks to your assigned private chef.

Notes: Underage adventurers leaving from the Terminal Marítima must be ten years or older.

Duration: 5 hours

Recommended clothing:

Includes:

Snorkel, paddleboard, power snorkel, towels, food, open bar

SAILBOAT DAY TRIPS

With the sun as your principal beacon, this voyage takes you to the remotest and most unprecedented Mexico Pacific aboard a natty sailboat that accommodates eighteen passengers. Weigh anchor at 10 am, then direct-sail to Punta Mita's most exclusive areas. Besides breathtaking vistas, you'll enjoy amenities like wine in hand and totally yummy food. Jump into water activities like paddleboards and snorkel or even learn some navigation fundamentals.

Notes:

Duration 4 hours

Does not include:

THE ISLAS MARIETAS

You cast off at dawn for the Marietas Islands, on an excursion that takes you to one of the most exclusive, spectacular and rarely visited places in the entire Republic of Mexico. You arrive at this bit of maritime heaven aboard a motorboat known as an APEX. Immediately following this brief crossing, you'll be sinking into soft sands on Playa de los Enamorados and will start to take in all the enchantment of the islands' rough beauty plus its incredible marine life. Gaily colored tropical fish, exotic birds and, with luck, humpback whales will mean you'll remember this unparalleled paradise for the rest of your life.

Notes: Participants should be fit and be able to swim 60 meters from the boat to the beach (access to Hidden Beach depends on water and wind conditions)

Duration: 2.5 hours

Recommended clothing:

Includes:

Does not include:

HUMPBACK WHALE - WATCHING

Starting from the wharf at Punta Mita, this journey takes you close to some of the most impressive sea creatures anywhere, specifically humpback whales. Using a hydrophone—an electric sound transmitter for underwater purposes—you'll hear these giants' songs as you marvel before their huge leaps from the water and learn everything about them from participating marine biologists. We think you'll come away seeing it as a safari you've got to experience at least once.

Notes: Season from mid-December to mid-March

Duration: 3 hours

Recommended clothing:

Includes:

Does not include:

DIVING

Like no other place in Mexico, diving is completely different at Islas Marietas National Park. You reach the plunge area from Punta Mita aboard a motorboat, the Panga, and when you arrive, you discover a complete universe of volcanic formations, tunnels and caves. With guidance from experienced, certified divers, you undertake the undersea adventure of a lifetime.

Notes: Two tanks or one tank for beginners who've completed 1.5 hours in pool scuba classes

Duration: 3.5 hours

Recommended clothing:

Includes:

Diving equipment

Does not include:

SAYULITA

Ground-zero for beach-lovers and all its other adventurous souls, Sayulita—further north on the Nayarit coast—is a dreamy town that merits your time. In your case, maybe start out on a ATV excursion, to reach beautiful trails along which unbelievable outlooks await. Wrap the excitement with relaxation at an exclusive beach club where you'll sample exquisite, refreshing cocktails after discovering the pueblo mágico's charming streets and boutiques.

Notes: At least 18 years old to drive; valid license required.

Duration: 4 hours

Recommended clothing:

Includes:

Does not include:

OUTDOOR ADVENTURES

You begin with an exciting motorboat trip across Banderas Bay to the eco-adventure park Traveler's Choice magazine picked as best-in-class for 2020. At the park, you'll enjoy varied activities ranging from ziplines, waterfall rappel, water-rafting and a new "rollercoaster" zipline that creates an illusion of free flight as you soar to the sky, plunge close to the surface and make sharp turns. If your visit falls between December and March, you can go out on an xtreme motorboat and swim with humpback whales.
