MEET THE FAMILY

The history of Italy with Class lies with its founders; Marilena and Salvatore Barberi.

Following respective university experiences with qualifications in the arts, the Roman siblings delved into combined careers in the Italian tourism industry. Their initial gambit took shape in the form of one of Rome's most successful tour operators, Walks Inside Rome, with a prestigious, family-owned cooking school, InRome Cooking, following shortly after.

Then, off the back of 30 years of deep experience within the industry, Marilena and Salvatore founded their very own luxury DMC: Italy with Class.

Italy with Class represents the culmination of their experience in bringing travellers the best of Italy.

It's a brand where luxury meets local, authenticity meets innovation, and the world's adoration of Italy and Italian culture is channeled into supporting local businesses.
